Law Practice

Frank is an experienced trial lawyer in state and federal courts and maintains a practice where he counsels clients on real estate matters, entity creation, commercial leasing, employment law (including severance negotiation and litigation in state and federal courts) and the many other issues his clients bring to him from their business and personal lives. Frank is also a trained mediator who has facilitated the settlement of many challenging disputes in diverse areas, including commercial, employment, real estate and domestic relations. Frank serves as President and Managing Shareholder of the firm.

Along with his wife and three sons, Frank enjoys outdoor activities such as hiking and skiing. He is also an avid reader with a particular interest in history. Frank has been heard to play his blues harmonica with his sons (and some of his law partners) from time to time
